Paris, Londres, Édimbourg – a comparison of family law practice and procedure in financial proceedings

Tuesday 26 November 2024
In person time from 5pm to 7pm (UK time)
Virtual time 5:30pm to 6:30pm (UK time)

The FBLS and Kingsley Napley have the pleasure of hosting a conference on a comparison of family law practice and procedure in financial proceedings between England and Wales, France and Scotland.

Follow our three divorcing couples as our experts explain the key (and sometimes surprising) differences in their respective journeys through the English, French and Scottish courts, each with the aim of reaching a financial settlement. Our experts will cover topics such as the role of the lawyer, confidentiality, transparency, disclosure and cost, amongst others.

The event will be held at the Kingsley Napley LLP offices (20 Bonhill Street, London, EC2A 4DN). The closest tube station is Old Street underground station. This will be a hybrid event, whether you would like to attend in person or virtually, please register with the FBLS.

Colleen Hall

Colleen qualified as an Associate in the Family team at Kingsley Napley in 2017. She advises on all aspects of family law issues including cases with intricate finances, cross border issues in particular cases with French nationals or assets in France, all stages of divorce, dissolution and judicial separation proceedings, including where proceedings have been issued in more than one jurisdiction, issues concerning the arrangements for children, assisting clients in applying for non-molestation and occupation orders and drafting pre and post nuptial agreements.

Bérénice Dufau-Richet

Bérénice DUFAU-RICHET has been collaborating with Alexandre BOICHÉ since December 2018.

During her training at the Ecole du Barreau (EFB), she completed a 6-month internship in a firm specializing in family law in Chicago. She then completed a 6-month internship in a firm specializing in domestic law and international family law in Paris. Then joined a firm specializing in family and heritage law as an associate. She is also trained in collaborative law.

Roxane Reiser

Roxane is a financial remedy practitioner with a particular expertise in jurisdiction and enforcement disputes. Roxane's cases typically involve assets held overseas, assets held in trust or via corporate entities. Roxane appears in cases heard up to High Court level, led and in her own right. Many of her cases have international elements. She was called to the Geneva Bar in 2018 and has appeared before courts in the French speaking part of Switzerland on several occasions. She regularly advises on cross-border recognition and enforcement of Swiss orders, Swiss family law and Swiss private client matters.

Tim Amos KC

Tim is a barrister in international family law and formerly Head of Chambers at QEB. He has practised at QEB since 1988 and took silk in 2008 as QC (now KC). His practice spans all aspects of family law (including pre-nups and nuptial trusts) but he is predominantly known as an expert in "big money" family finance, married or unmarried, and alive or dead (including claims under the Inheritance Act).

To register, please email England-wales@ajfb-fbls.org and further details will be sent prior to the event.
